THE BEWITCHED GROOM (13-3/8 x 7-7/8") is a woodcut, the first of two states done by Hans Baldung (German, 1484/5-1545) in 1544. It formerly belonged to Dr. Julius Hofmann of Carlsbad and Vienna, to E. A. Seasongood of New York, and now is in the Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Prasse Collection at The Cleveland Museum of Art.
